

BVH&PFT CIO Trustees and Officers

Peter Sheridan - Chair. Peter was fully involved in the funding and building of the new hall. Born in North Staffordshire and with wife Penny from Exeter, the couple have been resident in Broadhempston since 1999. A previous director of two manufacturing plcs, Peter has also owned and sold two businesses. A member of the Badminton Club, Peter's other interests include family, gardening, walking and group cycling in our wonderful countryside.

David Heath - Trustee. Previously Chairman of the Trust and now Chair of Headlands Sub-Committee, which will oversee the future development of the playing field. David and wife Eileen were born in Bristol and have lived in Broadhempston since 1999. A retired consultant physician involved in patient care and hospital management, David enjoys sport and gardening.

David Howard – Treasurer. David moved to Broadhempston in 2013 with the family after 30 years working in microelectronics in Cambridge. Now running a holiday cottage business just outside the village, David is involved in running the village badminton club, including as treasurer. His interests include walking the moors and coastal path, usually accompanied by his dog.

Jane Collings – Trustee. Jane and her family have lived in Broadhempston for 25 years. Currently an Academic Developer at the University of Plymouth, her background is as an educational consultant specialising in leadership, governance and evaluation. For some 20 years Jane was also a secondary school governor. Jane is Tennis Secretary for the Trust and one of the landscaping team at the new hall. Her other interests include gardening, walking, tennis and skiing.

BVH&PFT CIO Trustees and Officers

Joe Wegrzyn – Trustee. Joe moved to Broadhempston from Cheltenham when he retired in 2013. His wife Davina volunteers in the Broadhempston Community shop. Joe’s background in manufacturing and facilities management enables him to ensure that the Trust manages the day to day operation of the hall premises. He is Secretary of the Village Hall Short Mat Bowls Club and also enjoys walking, which he does with others from the village.

Kate Eagle – Trustee. Kate moved to Broadhempston in 2012 with husband David, and Beth was born in 2015. Having lived in the Midlands, London and Paris before moving to Devon, Kate has worked for 20+ years in global technology sales. Kate and Dave actively enjoy village life; Dave plays for the local football team and Kate has set up a village baby and toddler group. Kate plans to help market the hall with a focus on weddings and large events.

Roger Acton - Trustee. Roger was born in Cheshire and lived for many years in Hertfordshire before moving to Broadhempston with his wife Anne and two young sons in 2004. Now working for his own executive coaching and mentoring company, Roger is a former Chairman of Abbotskerswell Cricket Club and member of Broadhempston Table Tennis Club. Other interests include sailing, skiing, walking and photographing our beautiful landscape.

Andrea Dobson – Bookings Secretary for the Trust (not a Trustee). Andrea moved to the village with her husband Ramin and their two daughters in 2006. She has a background in the arts, public relations and event management. She really enjoys meeting and working with people in her role for the Trust and is very keen on dance, keeping fit and the theatre.